Eighteenth-Century Europe Seminar

Seminar: #417

MEETINGS (1962-1963)

Chair: Professor James L. Clifford
Co-chair: Professor Peter Gay
Secretary: Ms. Beverley Jean Rahn

OCT 17  Nomination and unanimous election of professors James L. Clifford and Peter Gay as chair and co-chair respectively. The members nominated Ms. Rahn as secretary. Agreement on the year's schedule, discussion of the number of members, eighteenth-century sub-fields represented, dinner menu pricing, and general proceedings of the Seminar.

NOV 28  The Enlightenment
        Peter Gay

DEC 19  Discussion of Prof. Peter Gay's The Enlightenment; discussion of procedures to elect new members, to invite guests, and announcement of upcoming talk.

JAN 16  Unitarianism: A Middle Class Enlightenment?
        Robert K. Webb, Professor of History, Columbia University

FEB 20  The Impact of the Enlightenment on Eighteenth-Century Music
        Paul Henry Lang, Professor of Musicology, Columbia University

MAR 20  The Concept of Rational Love, Or the Ideology of Mate Selection among the Aristocracy in the 18th Century
        J. Jean Hecht, Professor of History, Columbia University

APR 17  Art and the Enlightenment
        Rudolph Wittkower, Professor of Art History and Archeology; Mr. Franklin M. Biebel, The Frick Collection

MAY 15  Buffon, the Scientist with a Mask
        Otis Fellows, Professor of French and Romance Philology, Columbia University