DEFENSE AND SECURITY STUDIES (759) • Founded: 2013

Defense & Security Studies advances understanding of global security through research, analysis, and programs. Since its establishment in 2013, the DSS Program has led and convened conferences, workshops, and seminars on contemporary defense challenges. DSS emphasizes interdisciplinary methods, integrating the security advancements of several fields, to include development, diplomacy, economics, history, law, management, and technology.

CHAIR/S: Whitney Kassel • VICE CHAIR/S: Rachel Kim, Thomas Wedell-Wedellsborg, Michael Irving •
CHAIR EMERITUS: N. W. Collins • RAPPORTEUR: Vikram Vinod

2025-2026 MEETINGS

October 7

Assessing Security in Today's Tech Infrastructure and Operations
Whitney Kassel, Columbia University

New Paradigms in Security Studies
Thomas Wedell-Wedellsborg, Harvard University

April 7

Economic Statecraft in the Contemporary Era
Rachel Kim, United States Military Academy West Point

Responses to New Forms of Statecraft
Michael Irving, Columbia University

2026-2027 CHAIR: Whitney Kassel, defensesecurity@columbia.edu